

Russia

September 28, 2022

I came here to tell of the happenings here to be of process there above of the happenings that I struggling make Because for sounding russian its not for russian but for the soundin' that make me forget
I am the same
I keep struggling ever the same all still on this english tongue the tongue of the bretheren among man that is the sounding all to be had the reason why men that the way-of-the-net comprehend that I'll always hencefoth if I'd want it or not I was to feel always
broke like a bowl incomplete a lot devil a lot
I keep saying that a lot
If I do or not want it I'll keep seeing I want it or not A rather unattractive or not way at lookig at of seeing things I Always have of giving family the our of day I feel with russians that in a way they understand the way that I too be it for chance or for reason that I too would be in a comunion with such people of a different kind that not getting their language I get the gist of what you are talking for you see it happens that you among all other strangers you would be of my same kind that if a stranger would be seeing us would with wit and certaing candor affirm in a candid nature that it was depression all the time a way so simple of looking at A way this folks of russia would denounce that in such painfully obvious tone of the voice would plainly anounce

the cry of freedom
