

OBSESSED-WITH-GLORY

Tomás Natal Aragón

February 12, 2023

Who am I to begin with
A worm that pretends to be else
May I be a king in the disguise of a worm
Or am I neither; can't really tell
I know that I'm obsessed with glory
But why you may ask me
Am I such obsessed
What brought me into this shape and place
Is it that you have nothing, despite a royal name
You may desire to trivialize-me with analysis
But I'll keep being same
Just learn, there is no glory in rejectment
That's a lost all the way
Tere's no denying what is
That will crush you down and bend you
But you'll have to be,
Until the end